

Alpha Charter of Excellence (ACE) School would like to thank the John and Claudia Holliman Fund for their generous donation to help purchase technology devices for our students. We deeply appreciate the dedication and commitment you have given our school over the past three years.

